

St. James the Apostle School – Principal’s Corner

During the month of May, we will be spotlighting our graduates and their accomplishments. In case you missed our posts on social media, please take a moment to view our graduates and their accomplishments. This week we are featuring Annalise Lasher, Caitlyn Mercadante, Andrew Myers and Olivia Preza. Next week ... Andres Silva, Leah Torzilli and Grace Wolken.

ANNALISE LASHER CAITLYN MERCADANTE ANDREW MYERS OLIVIA PREZA

Annalise Lasher has been a student of St. James the Apostle School since 2010 since preschool. Annalise is part of our First Friday Mass choir and has a beautiful voice. Annalise is always smiling and always willing to volunteer to help out the St. James community. Annalise has been accepted to Kennedy Catholic High School and Our Lady of Lourdes High School. She has chosen to attend Kennedy Catholic School in the fall.

Andrew Myers has been a student of St. James the Apostle School since 2016. Andrew join us in fifth grade. He immediately became part of the St. James community. Andrew is an altar server for our parish and also plays basketball for St. James CYO. Andrew has been accepted to Kennedy Catholic High School and Our Lady of Lourdes High School. Andrew will be attending Kennedy Catholic High School in the fall.

Caitlyn Mercadante has been a student of St. James the Apostle School since 2018. Caitlyn joined us after moving from Queens to Carmel. From her first day with us, she fit right in. Caitlyn is a hard-working student whose kind personality shines through the hallways of St. James the Apostle School. Caitlyn plays the clarinet for our school band. Caitlyn has been accepted to Kennedy Catholic High School, St. John’s Preparatory High School and Msgr. McClancey Memorial High School. Caitlyn will be attending St. John’s Preparatory High School.

Olivia Preza has been a student of St. James the Apostle School since 2011. Olivia is a sweet and kind young lady who is an “old soul” who loves to bake, knit and take care of our younger students. She is an altar server and is a member of our Little Flowers. Olivia is the first to volunteer whenever needed. Olivia has been accepted to Kennedy Catholic High School and Our Lady of Lourdes High School. She will be attending Carmel High School.
