

GRATEFUL – THANKFUL – BLESSED

We received the following testimonial from Mr. and Mrs. Benvenuto, parents of Veronica Benvenuto who recently graduated from St. James the Apostle School. Mrs. Benvenuto began her email by saying, "I am still so grateful for all that you did to make Veronica feel like she joined a family that was waiting for her." xo

We are so grateful for their kind words and would like to share them with you.

Our daughter attended Catholic school since Kindergarten, and she thrived in that environment. When our former Catholic elementary school tragically closed in the wake of the Covid-19 pandemic, my husband and I agreed that we would continue with a Catholic education for our daughter's final 8th grade year. Our requirements for the schools were: that they teach our faith; the quality of the faculty; academic excellence; and a strong sense of community. After research and visiting other private schools in the area, St. James the Apostle stood out at the top of every category. St. James has attentive, supportive and qualified teachers. Despite its small size, the school offers 9th grade Algebra to accelerated 8th grade students. The school is expertly headed by Mrs. Crawford, a dynamic principal, whose dedication and zeal was evident from her first welcome through to our final graduation ceremony and even beyond to carefully managing the NYS Regents examination for the Algebra students. The relentlessly supportive staff of Mrs. Mascia and Mrs. Moffatt, made every day as seamless as it could possibly have been. Even the pastor of St. James, Monsignor Marchitelli, has shown an admirable involvement with the school and interest in its future. Our decision was one the best decisions we have ever made. The school promotes active learning and critical thinking. There is an online system in place for parents to access current and upcoming classwork. It was extremely easy to monitor my child's progress without waiting for test results to come home. My daughter was enthusiastic to go to school every day and eager to come home to share what she had learned and to complete the assigned work. The whole year literally felt like she joined a family that had been waiting for her all along. We believe St. James the Apostle School instills discipline, hard work, respect and a love for knowledge. Our daughter was accepted as part of the freshman class at Dominican Academy, distinguished as the # 3 Catholic Girls High School in New York State for 2021 by Niche school rankings, thanks to having successfully completed an entire school year with faithful in person classes despite the pandemic. St. James is truly committed to excellence for its students. This is indeed a small school with big rewards!
